

'10 BABBITT ROSÉ

YAKIMA VALLEY

Named after a family friend who appreciated his Rosé, this wine is fermented in stainless steel to retain the distinct fruit character. So, some warm summer evening raise a glass to Babbitt, and wash away the heat with a cool crisp bottle of what he used to call “the pink stuff.”

NOTES

“Cherries and strawberries come gushing out of the glass followed by hibiscus tea. Babbitt has a subtle sweetness balanced by wonderful acidity. This wine is made for a barbeque or just a fine evening of relaxing.”
